SHANNEN FIELDS-BRASWELL

Award-Winning Actress. Inspirational Speaker. Storyteller.

But more than that, Shannen Fields-Braswell has lived a story of loss, redemption and courage that inspires women to live with purpose and show up for the life God is calling them to live!

Hey ya'll!

Shannen Fields-Braswell is an award-winning actress, producer, writer and inspirational speaker. Her dreams were launched with the Kendrick Brother's feature film, Facing the Giants, where she was cast in the lead female role. Since then, Shannen has left an unforgettable mark on the industry. She is also known for her compelling performances in The Order of Rights, Song of the Tree Frogs, Redeemed, Fragment, Carol and the mini television reality show, Rebuild and Restore, just to name a few. Shannen is passionate about creating dynamic and inspirational content in the arena of faith-based cinema and allowing Jesus to shine through every aspect of her life.

Shannen has lived what it means to discover beauty from the ashes. Shannen is married to Anthony Braswell. Shannen and Anthony both lost their late spouses to terminal illnesses, but refused to allow those experiences to define them. Together, they have been married a combined 55 years and have used that experience to create Uncover Marriage. Shannen is also the Co-Founder and Executive Director of Healing Forward Ministries, a non-profit organization to support widows and their families. They also partner with Ministry to the Military to support families deployed around the world.

I'M ON A MISSION TO MAKE Jesus KNOWN THROUGH STORIES THAT SPEAK HIS TRUTH AND CALL US TO LIVE FULLY SURRENDERED TO HIS PURPOSE.

Every event is different, but the mission is always the same:

I WANT WOMEN TO KNOW WHO GOD CREATED THEM TO BE, EXPERIENCE THE FREEDOM FOUND IN CHRIST, AND LIVE BOLDLY THROUGH THE POWER OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

Known by audiences around the world for her role as Brooke Taylor in Facing the Giants, Shannen has spent more than two decades telling stories that inspire hope. But the most powerful story she has ever shared isn't one she performed on screen, it's the one God has written through her own life.

After walking through the devastating loss of her late husband, Shannen made a decision that would shape the rest of her life:

SHE WOULD HEAL FORWARD.

JUST SHOW UP

Shannen Fields-Braswell is passionate about awakening women to the truth that they are capable of far more than they realize, not because of their own strength, but because of the power of Jesus working through them.

Too many women have been silenced by the lies of the enemy. Lies that tell them their past is too broken, their failures are too great, their wounds are too deep, or their story disqualifies them from being used by God. The enemy wants women distracted, defeated, and afraid.

But God is calling them higher.

Just Show Up is a battle cry for women to silence the lies, rise in their God-given identity, and step boldly into the purpose they were created for.

The world says, "Why would God use you?"
Shannen's response is, "Why wouldn't He?"

God is looking for women who will stand firm in His Word, get on their knees in passionate prayer, recognize His voice in every season, and have the courage to stand in the gaps where others won't. Women who will fight for what is right, refuse to be defined by fear, and walk forward with a warrior's faith.

This is a call to stop shrinking back. Stop living afraid. Stop allowing yesterday's battles to determine tomorrow's purpose.

Because when a woman knows who she is in Jesus, she doesn't just show up, she shows up with faith, confidence, and courage.

And when she shows up, God can do what only He can do.
